Dedication

Dedication

We thought we'd write a note to you
Just to let you know
We thank-you for your kindness---
You've done from your heart aglow.

Sometimes we've had our problems
Meek, small and dear,
But there was always a comfort,
In knowing you were near.

Time will go on, and so will thee
Years will pass and go
But there will always be a blessing
When we think of the little things
That don't always show.

Though this isn't quite serious
We believe that it is true
We hope our quaint little meaning
Comes through to you.

There are many other things we'd
Like to talk about
The many many times that you have Helped us out
Yes, we could go on and on with
Our note to you
But there are just some things,
They don't give you
Enough space to do.

DR. JACK F. PARKER
Superintendent of Schools

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Jack F. Parker and his assistants have more than just a goal to reach with their daily tasks that are set in front of them day by day. It is more than just an idea to head all of the city schools, plus various departments alone here at Central.

With the widespread of school drop-outs and other serious and minor weekly problems, Dr. Parker and his right-arm assistants can take pride in feeling that they help make the best better.

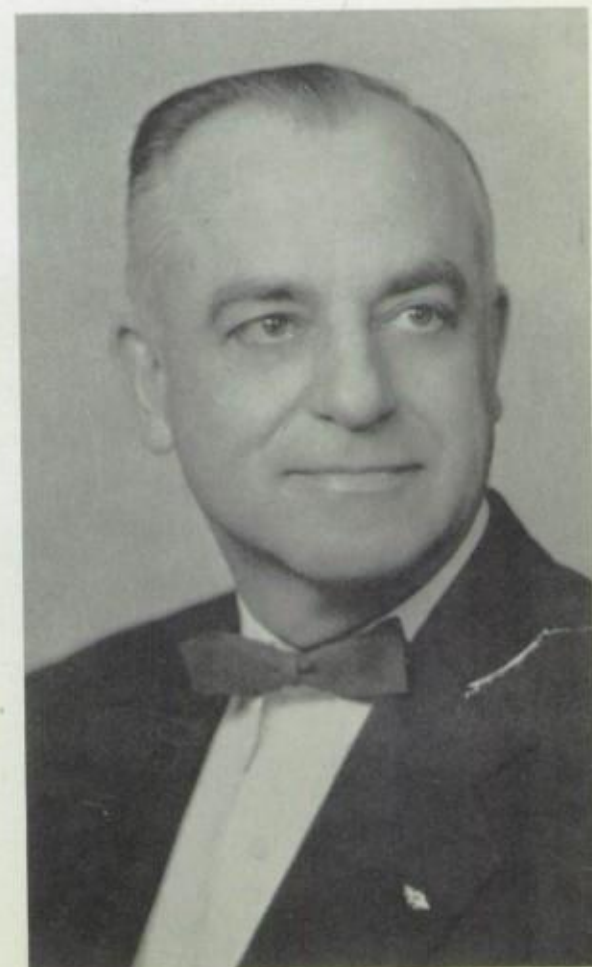

No doubt the jobs of these officials are so frequently taken for granted. So in the cause of futhering education at Central High alone the students would like to thank our superintendent of schools and his worthy assistants.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Constantly striving to better our Oklahoma School System is the job of the Board of Education. This board, which is made up of men and women, work long tedious hours to maintain and regulate a school program that will best benefit the students.

With the job of balancing the budget, wrestling with the necessity of securing new equipment for our schools, the board also has to alleviate the problem of overcrowded rooms, securing new teachers, plan new buildings and expansion programs, as well as to add new members from year to year.

Realizing that their decisions direct the course of our school, this group holds many lengthy meetings in an effort to give the people an educational program they will approve of.

Administration

PRINCIPAL

Now finishing his fourth year as OHS principal is Mr. Joe Lawter, a former Central graduate. Mr. Lawter obtained his Bachelor of Arts Degree from Central State College. He then went on and acquired his Masters Degree from Oklahoma State University. Since then he has added fifty hours to his graduate work.

This year Mr. Lawter was faced with more and bigger problems. Not only was he principal of the regular school classes but was also head of the Manpower Program, project classes, and Adult Day classes. He has indeed been a very busy and important man at Central.

To Mr. Lawter, the faculty and students say thanks, for the long, hard hours you've spent benefiting "Our" OHS.

MR. JOE LAWTER

MR. AL MARSHALL
VICE-PRINCIPAL

This year Central has a new face in the office of Vice-Principal, Mr. Al Marshall, but not new at Central.

He takes good care of the disciplinary problems, watching the statistical reports, and supervising the teachers record keeping. He has made many friends as Vice-Principal.

Although his schedule at Central requires a great amount of time he still finds hours to help out anywhere and anyone whenever he can.

MR. WESLEY DRIGGS
ADULT COORDINATOR

In past years Mr. Driggs has worked as assistant principal here at Central High School. But this year he had a greater and bigger task. Being the principal of the Manpower students presents problems as well as rewards. Mr. Driggs feels that every student is entitled to a better education, he feels that by helping others he is helping himself. He says it is more than a reward when you help people help themselves.

OFFICE STAFF

Some of the busiest people at Central will be found in the front office. These women handle everything from records to fee money.

Some of their responsibilities are running the switchboard, teaching the office aides and showing them the various jobs important in office work.

Here will be found a general information bureau on all students such as grade averages, all classes and teachers, also the records of previous graduates attending Central.

Each of the women, Mrs. Shirley Cook, Mrs. Eloise Keffer, Mrs. Lahoma Schiel and Mrs. Kathleen Vinson, of the office staff do the work that makes the wheels of Central run smoothly and constantly.

Keeping attendances of all students, printing and issuing daily bulletins, checking students in and out of school, keeping the school up to date of the financial position as well as keeping books on fees and issuing receipts are just part of a day's work for these four women. So hats off to these hard working ladies.

COUNSELORS

Counseling is a hard job and is not to be taken lightly. This year we have a great staff of counselors. In their daily routine they help students with their problems at home, at school, as well as financial ones. One can get a good idea why these counselors are sometimes called parents away from home.

Mr. Charles Sandmann has been a Senior High counselor for two years, after teaching math for nine years.

Counseling at Central for the first year is Mrs. Ladell Peterson. Last year she taught Co-op English, math, and homemaking.

Mrs. Jewell Reeves has been counseling Junior High students at Central for nine years. She came to Central when it was first made a Junior-Senior school in 1954.

Assistant to Mr. Marshall in the area of attendance and discipline at junior high level, is the new title given Mr. Bill Salwaechter. This is his first year as a Junior High counselor. Previously he taught science here at Central. Before coming to Oklahoma he was a geologist in Lansing, Michigan.

Faculty

We pledge our allegiance to the faculty.
Of Central High School of Oklahoma.
And to the school for which it stands.
One lesson under teachers,
Loyalty and truthful with faith for all.

This was written to show the faculty that they are important to students and the school. The faculty has grown through the past years through the addition of new teachers and the presence of the others who remained to become a top-notch teaching group. We wouldn't be a school at heart if we didn't have them to teach. The need to educate teenagers prevails always within them. Their desire is to teach the teenagers of today what the teenagers a thousand years ago did not have the opportunity to learn.

Coach Jim Raglin, "I will not chew tobacco in class--I will not chew tobacco in class..."

"Things go better with coke," says Mrs. Eithel Warner.

AIN'T, ain't in the dictionary," says Mrs. Eleanor Askew

"How did you get out before the bell rang?" question students to Mr. Frank Tefertiller, Mrs. Ethel Warner, and Mr. Dale Story.

Mr. Paul Simmons screams, "I'd rather do it myself."

"Makes you feel you're down to your last breath, only 200 more days to go" remarks Mr. Cecil Tansel.

Cafeteria

Famous throughout the school for always having something cooking is the Central High cafeteria staff. To these masters of the culinary arts go all the important jobs of preparing well balanced meals. Managed by Margery Hawkins, the meals are all planned to meet a type A standard. A plate lunch may be purchased for 43¢ or 28¢.

The cafeteria feeds around one thousand students per day and about one hundred personnel. The cafeteria is also a training school for the managers of the cafeteria of other city schools.

Central cafeteria also serves a snack bar for the night school students each Tuesday and Thursday night.

Custodians

The custodians have done a very fine job this year. These men work long, hard hours before, during and after school to keep our classrooms, halls and school yard clean.

We are very grateful for the services that they have done for our school.

You can always find one of these men willing to do a favor for our teachers and students any time of the day.

Our appreciation goes to Joe Walls the fourth floor custodian, Robert Barnes the third floor, Howard "Speedy" Bronson second floor, and E. E. Webb of the first floor. Others are James Kimbo cosmetology George Beard, night custodian, Fred Smith, foreman, Lorene Hall, maid, and Cliff Howard head custodian for jobs well done for this another school year.

Senior Class

We the senior class of '64 have finally attained one of our highest goals in high school, to be seniors. But as we look back upon the years, we cherish those golden memories of assemblies, parties, dances, club meetings, games, attending and not attending classes, representing our school at various other functions, racing down the stairs to the cafeteria, madly hunting parking places, and trying to get off the D. N. A.

We look forward to our senior year high points too, with the gift of the juniors, the junior-senior prom, the Senior Play, class sermon, senior luncheon, and then all too soon graduation night.

"Love is a many splendored things" says Gloria Hobbs, Thurman McNeely, Linda Hudson and Jay Bendle.

It seemed only yesterday we came back from summer vacations to find ourselves seniors. We look upon this time with misty eyes and a sad heart while at the same time, we look forward to what is in store for our lives with great anxiety, because this will be a turning point. Whether we are off to college, the Armed Forces, a job or that great institution, marriage.

This time in our young existence will be the deciding factor as to what kind of citizens our school has produced. When we are older, we will realize how important our days at O. H. S. were.

Junior Class

This year the Junior Class has really striven for their many tangible contributions to our school, for lofty ideas which they set before us, for determined efforts to achieve high goals of citizenship and enhancing the opportunity for students and teachers alike to bring to a close another happy and successful school year.

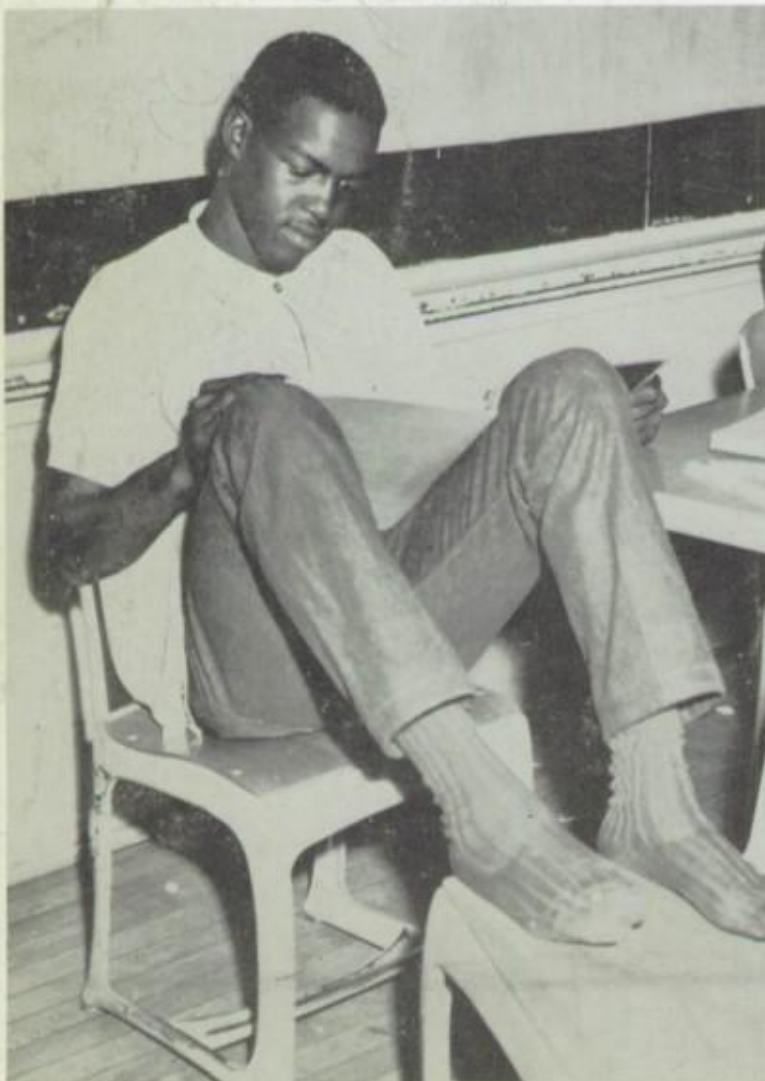

The junior class officers for the '63-64' year were Kay Robinson, President; Vice-President, Donald Perkins; Secretary Shirley Johnson, Treasurer; Mildred Williams and student council representative Robert Massengale.

The Junior Class has shown sincere appreciation for the educational tools which have been provided for furthering their education. They realize we are living in the most opportune time since the dawn of civilization.

As they track onward and upward toward desired goals they shall strive with efforts to add luster to these tools their Alma Mater has so generously provided.

As every year the Juniors received the thrill of getting their class rings and going to the prom. We're sure that through the years every Junior will treasure the memories of their golden years at OHS.

There's nothing like working in comfort wouldn't you say Billy Joe Bailey

Here we are at last a part of Central High School. Although we haven't completed our duty in Senior High, we are getting a good start, especially with the hard-working officers that were elected. The President of this class is Connie Lane. Assisting her and filling in when she is absent is Vice-president Marie Deal and the roll and minutes are taken care of by Phyllis Colvin.

The money keeper or as they say

"I'm Confused" says Fran Morgan

the treasurer is Nancy Ebersole. Last but not least, is the representative, Bernadette Martinez.

We know that these people will do their best in trying to make Central a better school in the future. They are Central's leaders in the future.

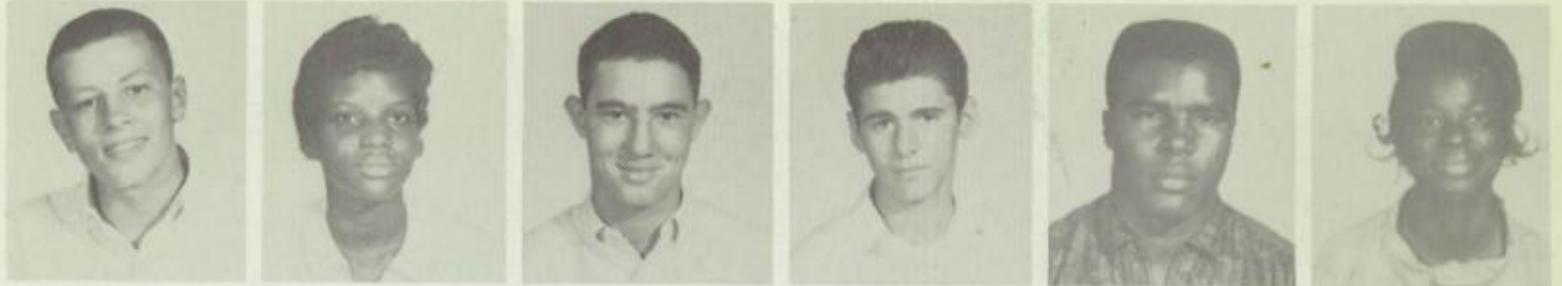

We hope they will pick up where the Centralites from the year before have left off and continue on.

FOOTBALL

Victory didn't seem to be the battle cry of the Central Cardinals Football team losing many valuable members due to graduation and transfers, Central had a head start on bad luck. Also, playing many of the state's best teams, such as John Marshall, "class A Champs", Southeast, Harding and Woodward, didn't help show the Cards at their best.

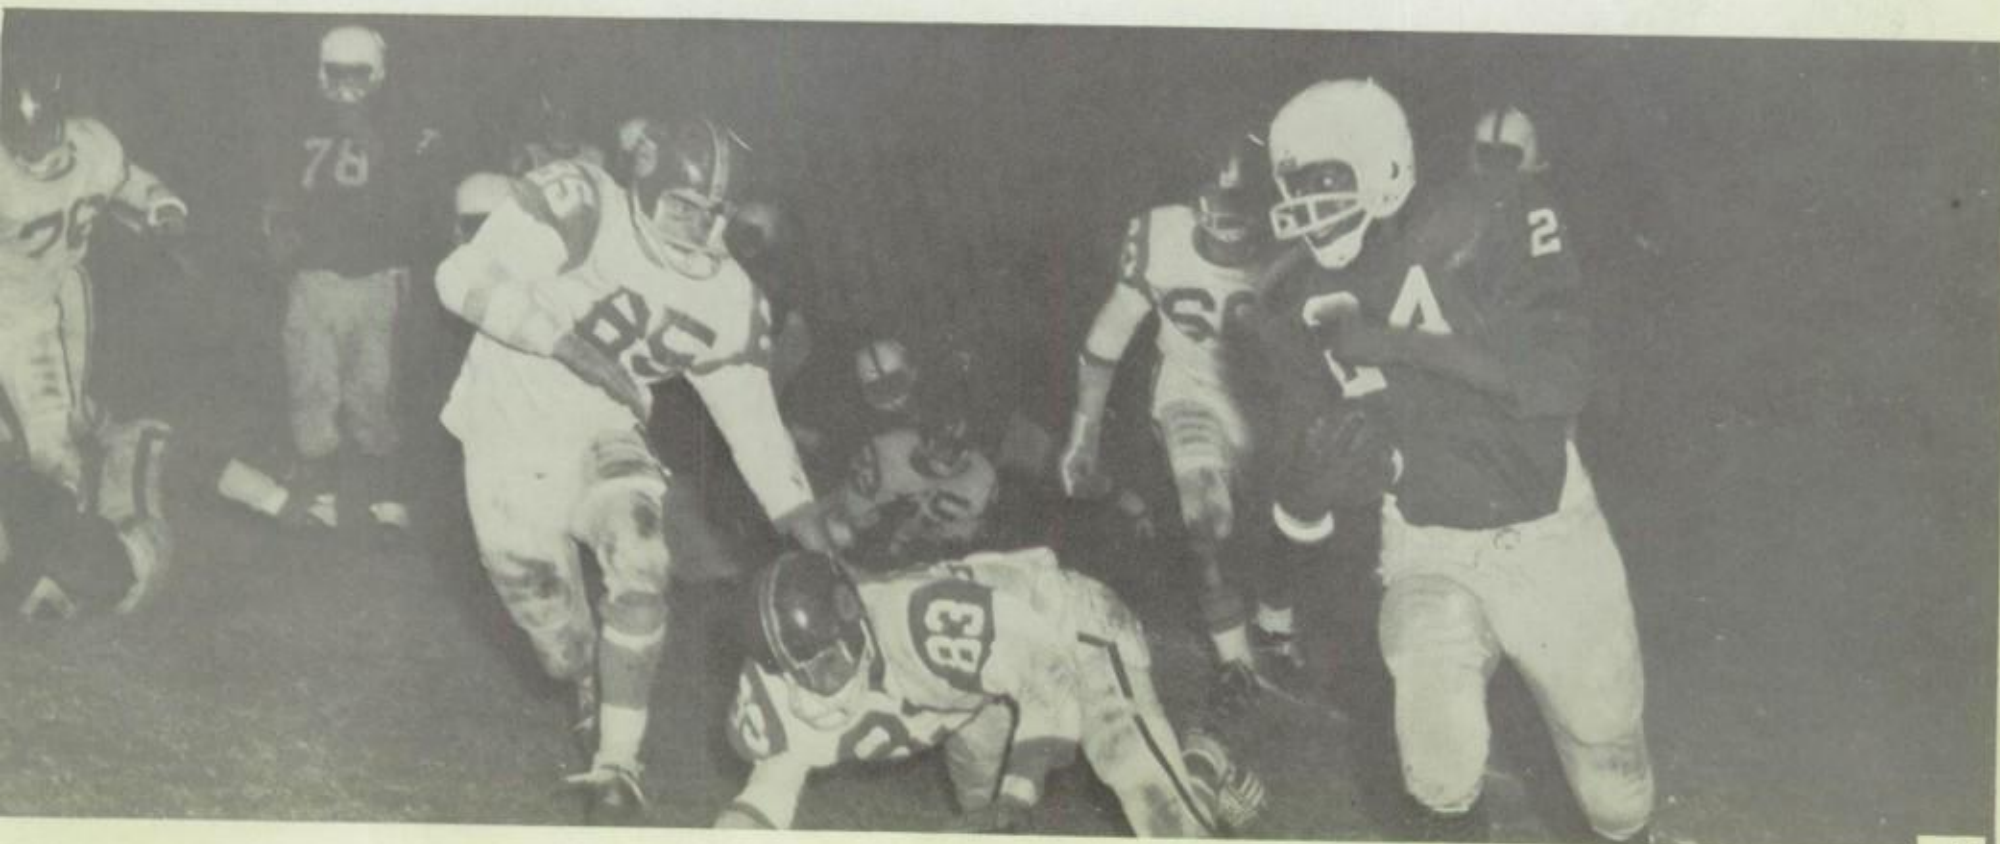

There were many outstanding members of the team and among the notables, were Leonard Mayes, fullback; Don Steele, quarterback; Billy Hankins, halfback; Harold Steele, quarterback, and Luther Ford, lineman.

Coach Jess Ladd and the Cardinal Staff would like to wish the graduating seniors the best of luck in their future. These boys did their best at all times, and as any great athlete will tell you, it's hard to keep trying when your team is losing, and to maintain a level head at all times.

They have the stamina to play on any team in the country. Their seniors take the hopes and best wishes of Central High School with them now and forever after.

"You will never get this ball," says Don Simmons.

A SQUAD

ROW TWO: Leslie Brown, Manager, Albert Walters, Love Denton, Ardell England, Robert Adams, Billy Bailey, Don Simmons, Maurice Alexander. ROW ONE: Harold Arinwine, Wayne Smith, Rudy Renteria, Godfrey Bass, Thurman McNeely, Coaches Basil McCollom and James Raglin.

BASKETBALL

Beating the States No. 1 and No. 2 Class A ranked teams the roundballers of Central had themselves a ball.

All members of the team were so outstanding that the Cardinal staff decided to salute only the senior members of the team. First, 6'6" center, Ardell England improved tremendously this year. Ardell could always be counted on to pump in a quick two pointer. Thurman McNeely has been a valuable member of the team for four years. Thurman was always ready to go in and make his bid for Card fame. Six foot forward Robert Adams, was known as "jump man." This name suits him, for he could really jump for those rebounds. Guard 5'9" Wayne Smith was another big improvement. He came in handy in some mighty tight spots. Forward Love Denton, 6'1", was the outstanding rebounder of the year. The Card staff is sure Love will be a valuable asset on any team. Rudy Renteria guard is a potential All-State candidate. Anyone watching Rudy can certainly see why. And last of all is Godfrey Bass who is one of the great players of our time. Godfrey did not get a chance to play as much as Cardinal fans would have liked, but everyone liked what they did get to see.

Central's mighty "nine" came through the 1964 season in fine style. The future looked bright this past season, because we have a number of returning lettermen, most of whom played regular baseball last year.

Coach Jess Ladd has been the baseball coach for the last three years and we feel confident that he will maintain a good group of winning boys.

The following lettermen returned back this past year: Reuben Jimboy, Gary Patterson, Ed Alton, Wayne Smith, Baron Mathis, Albert Walters, Love Denton and Rudy Renteria.

Most of all everyone was proud of the fact that more people attended the games better this year.

The senior three smile with glee, Rudy Renteria, Wayne Smith and Love Denton.

What are you waiting for Byron, the ball maybe?

We've Got Oomph!

Despite a lack of experience, the Junior High team proved themselves to have lots of rugged players this past year and a match for any team in the city. Under the fine coaching of Dale Story and James Raglin, the small rugged club fought until the whistle blew.

With stars like Harold Steele, Jack Johnson and others, these "boys" are the "men" of varsities to come.

BASEBALL

They might be young, but these Junior High baseball have a lot going for them, especially batting balls in the right direction. They even did better than the senior high, as far as winning games is concerned. Every time an opponent had to play them the story was always "oh, my gosh, we have to play those boys from Central."

BASKETBALL

The Junior High varsity basketball team took their stand along side the Senior High varsity. With a small but aggressive team, they grew in strength and skill with every encounter. Under the fine coaching of Dale Story, the "never--say die" team members will be in excellent position to take to the Senior champs next season.

Fun! Excitement! Work! Bruises! Bumps! Games! Pals and lasting Friendships. Any and all words and phrases describe how that happy, wholesome group of girls who assembled in the girl's gym the last hour of each day felt about Girls' Sports. The vigor with which they set about rebuilding teams which had been impoverished by graduation was notable.

group in all inter-city athletic contests held for girls--softball, volleyball, table tennis, and badminton.

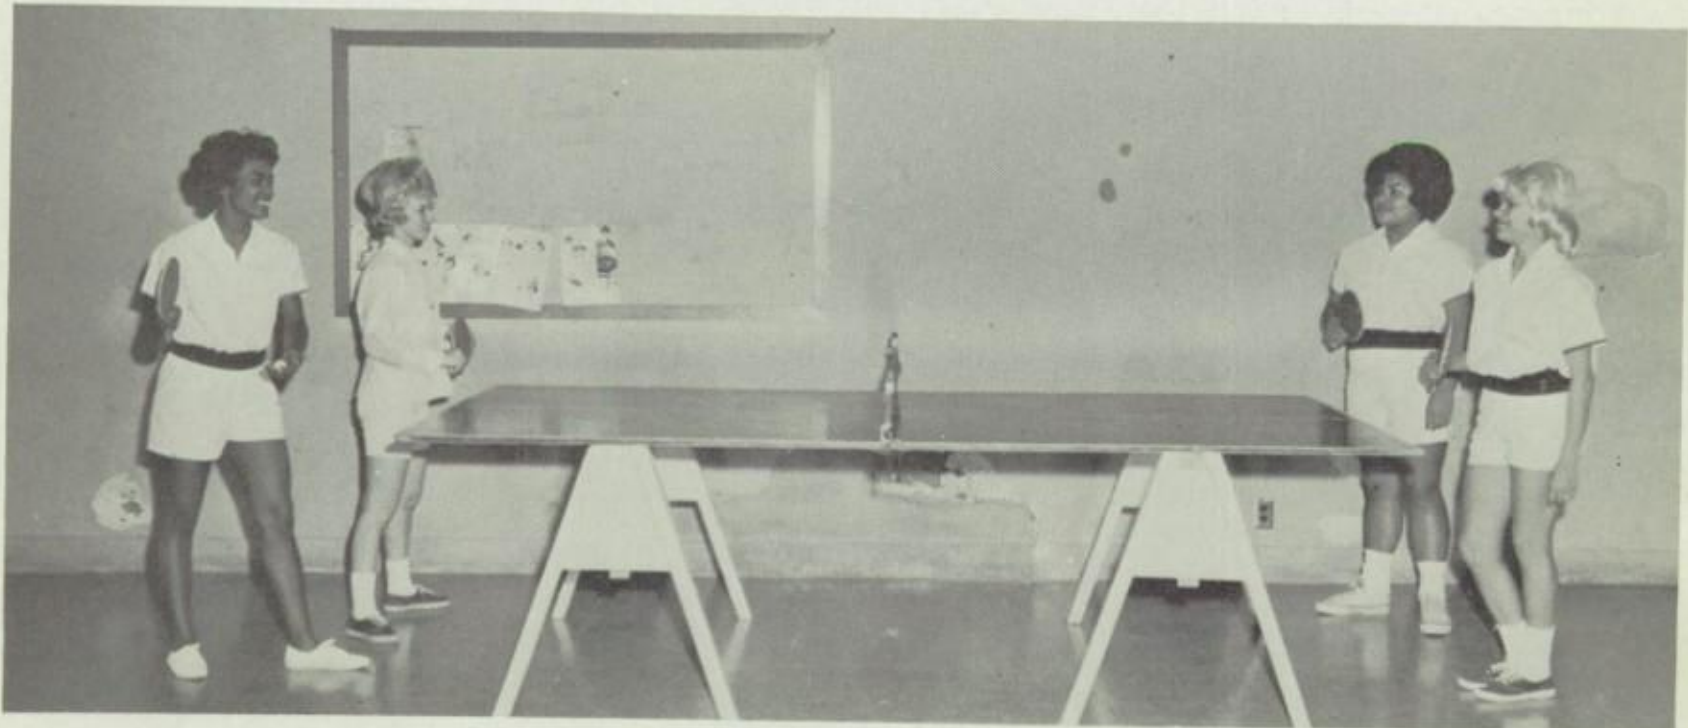

Possibly no phrase could better describe this group---"the everlasting teamwork of every blooming soul"----for there were no single stars but rather an entire group which starred in such qualities as sportsmanship, square dealing, and fair play.

For Central's Team!

That's it girls up and over.

By the way you are all smiling it looks like another smile contest.

Wonder who can jump the highest, Janice Little or Bessie England?

Cheerleaders pyramid for Central.

CHEERLEADERS

Central was very lucky this year by having the peppiest and sharpest cheerleaders the school has had in a number of years. These girls came back from camp with high honors by placing third three days, second one day and honorable mention one day in competition from several states.

They did a find job in representing Central High School and Central was proud of them for their representation.

Activities

We Are the Student Council Ready To Go

The Student Council has become an important governing body at Central since its origin in 1921. It is through this organization that the principal, faculty, and students work together to promote all worthy school activities, leadership, and school spirit.

Representatives to the Council are selected from homerooms and organizations. The Council, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Martha Hayes, not only transacts school business, but also learns parliamentary procedures and conducts discussions on school problems and projects.

The day-to-day work of the Council often seems of little significance to the members, but at the end of the year when they look back upon their work, they realize that the small things put together amount to a great deal in helping to operate the school successfully.

As a means of making money, the Student Council sponsors a student store, named Cardinal Corners.

The Student Council officers are President, Gloria Hobbs; Vice-President, Carolyn Young; Secretary, Pat Dove; Parliamentarian, Rocky Jones; Reporter, Fran Henderson and Chaplain, Johnnie Kay Wilkens.

Gloria Hobbs knows that you have to do a bit of everything to be President.

"Happy days come when School Spirit Week begins," says Connie Lane, Pat Dave and Pat Wood.

We Are Always Loyal and True

"Ugly is not the word for it," says Mrs. Hayes to Gloria Hobbs about Mr. Lloyd Robbins.

Rocky Jones practices for big Student Council conference.

"Pray tell me Marvin Martin what are you doing?" Can you tell me Mr. Dale Storv?"

It's been a long, long day.

So you're public flunkie number one, hey? Work on Lenord Sutton.

Ah come on Carolyn up a little higher, says Gloria.

Cardinal Council Favor

The Junior High Cardinal Council is well worth the time and effort put out by the sponsor, Mrs. Nadine Clark; the President, Robert Ebersole; the Vice-President, Hilda Dutton; the Secretary, Gayle Parkerson and the Treasurer, Jean Alton. This organization is considered the "Heart" of the Junior High.

These people have put a lot of hard work into the Cardinal Council, but enjoyment became of it. They have had several parties and mixers, which they have sponsored.

They are proud that they were able to attend the Junior High Student Council State Convention in Stillwater, Oklahoma. At this convention they brought back many new goals and ideas to set in Central.

The Cardinal Council meetings are on every first and third Tuesday of the month. At these meetings the officers, the sponsor and the Homeroom representatives discuss and put into action the things most important in maintaining a good school year, and we are glad to say it has been for the Junior High of Central.

Youth With Savor

"You'll probably agree that our style show was different," agrees Paula Massengale with Sarah Hedgepeth.

"You see in Cardinal Council we love what we do," remarks Paula Massengale.

Wanted! Officers for meeting.

By Watching Us You Get A Treat

There is snow on the ground, but the twirlers don't frown.

Wiley Post never had it so good.

Drum major, Rocky Jones and director Mr. Lloyd Robbins take a sneak coffee break.

There is self pride in the "Pride of OHS."

As in the years of past, the pride of OHS, usually called the Senior High band has maintained its record of having a successful year. This past year the band has marked a new record of accomplishments and because of this the band director has bestowed upon them much praise.

During the first of the year the band played at the dedication of the new Wiley Post monument, which was an honor to be allowed to participate there. Central was the only school asked.

At the annual contest that is held at OCU the band played two numbers, a long piece and a short piece, for the judges. This is a district contest rule.

As in years past they went to the '89er parade in Guthrie, Oklahoma. Also they played at the spring concert. Wonderful, forever excellent, doing all that they can do for Central, by coming to all the football and basketball games, and entertaining the faculty and students, the band has done their fair share for the year of 1963-64.

Beside the trophy the two outstanding Majors of the parade, Linda Parker and Juanita Nesbitt.

The Drum and Bugle consists of girls in the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades.

The uniforms are short red skirts with red and white striped sweaters. There are two drum majors who are Juanita Nesbitt and Linda Parker.

They perform for all home games, pep assemblies, at parades and in different contests.

The Drum and Bugle is one of the most popular organizations here at Central. To be in Drum and Bugle the girls have to go through a screening test put on by the experienced girls. You have to meet certain qualifications to be able to join.

Every year they are invited to march in the East Central Homecoming parade in Ada. They go by bus and spend the whole day at the college. They also go to the 89'er Day Parade in Guthrie, Oklahoma during April.

Mr. Lloyd Robbins says "The drum and bugle girls are the most dependable group of girls I have ever worked with."

The Junior High Band has grown in number this year. There are twenty-five students. The drums and clarinets seem to be the most popular instruments.

The students that advanced the most by the second semester were moved to the Senior Band. This is their goal -- to be a member of the senior band.

Mr. Lloyd Robbins, who is the director of the band, said that the Junior High students have started to play more advanced music. This helps prepare them for the advanced band.

They go to the field every day that they can get out to learn to march. In this way they are ready to go directly into the advanced band all prepared to work.

At the end of the school year, the Junior High students have the ability to march and play as well as the Senior High Band.

Mr. Klemme came to us from Ontario Jr. High School, Ontario, Oregon. He has a Bachelor of Music Education Degree from the Nazarene College from Bethany and Master of Teaching (music) from Central State College in Edmond.

Mr. Klemme has certainly done a wonderful job with the choir this year and with such numbers as "Ode to America," "One God," "River Boy," and "Moon River" along with many many more.

Gloria Hobbs who has been a pianist for the choir for three years has been chosen sweetheart by the members of the Senior High Choir.

The choir and Central are grateful to Mr. Klemme for his fine job this year. They feel they have really accomplished something, because of all the many new things they have learned.

Ninth Grade Choir

The Junior High Choir was arranged differently this year. Instead of having just one Junior High choir class as in the past, it was divided into the eighth grade class and the ninth grade class.

The eighth grade class has 48 members and meets third hour. The ninth grade class meets fifth hour and has 37 members. These all in all make up the Junior Choir. The accompanist for both of the classes is Clay Carter.

On April 6th and 7th the Junior Choir participated in the All City Junior Choral Festival. In order to enter the festival they auditioned on January 19th.

Their assemblies included the Thanksgiving, Christmas assemblies, installation music for Cardinal Council, and in Music Week in April.

Student Advisory Advises

Swan, Kay Robinson, Gloria Hobbs, and Linda Price Lovelace.

The student advisory is a group of a few selected students who meet twice a month with the principal, Mr. Lawter.

The main purpose is to talk over with the principal the problems at hand with the students. Problems range from the length of skirts of girls and various other common problems like the sports games.

These students are selected from different club groups, mainly club presidents. This past year these students have aided the school on a whole to further promote better relationships between teachers, other schools and getting along among themselves.

Junior Rotarians Rotate

The Junior Rotarians are a group of boys selected from the various high schools to serve as guests of the Rotary Club.

This year six boys were selected from Central. Once a month one boy attends a class along with other Junior Rotarians from other schools at the Rotary Club. The first class was held in October.

The purpose of Junior Rotarians is to get the boys acquainted with the businessmen of Oklahoma City.

They are selected by a committee of teachers on their character, integrity, and scholastic ability.

Each boy attends a luncheon every Tuesday held at the Skirvin Tower Hotel.

CARDETTE PEP CLUB

The Cardettes is the Junior High Pep Club, which was organized in 1955 by Mrs. Ruth Coffey. The purpose of the club is to promote school spirit in all of the activities. The seventh, eighth and ninth grade girls make up the club. These girls have really worked hard this year to make the club what it is.

This year the Cardettes' sponsor is Home Economics teacher Mrs. Joyce Jones. Officers are President, Judy Palmer; Vice President, Theresa Fields; Secretary, Jean Alton, and Treasurer, Connie Taylor.

The uniforms for the Cardettes are very simple but smart. They consist of a red sweater, black pleated skirts and red tennis shoes.

The Cheerleaders for the Cardettes have all done a fine job in working with the club and also have been very active in supporting their team. This years' Cheerleaders are Judy Palmer, Hilda Dutton, Runia Coffey, Bennie Russell, Judy Rowan, and Theresa Fields.

This year for the first year since the girls' senior high pep clubs were discontinued, Central has a Senior High Girls' pep club, the Centreets.

The Centreets were first organized during the summer of 1963. They have approximately forty members and they help to give great support to our teams and school.

The officers are President, Phyllis Colvin; Vice-President, Connie Lane; Secretary, Margaret Webb, and Treasurer, Mae Rose Watson. Their sponsor is physical educational instructor, Patricia Nicholson.

The Centreets' main goal is to have a large club and make it one of the best clubs in Central. Some of their activities of the year were a poster party, a Christmas dance, and attending all the athletic activities.

The Centreets have had a really good year for a start. All of the school wishes them all the luck and hopes that the Centreets will continue through years to come and fulfill their goal.

All together now- one, two, three.

Now that we are organized, what the heck do we do?

We Love Our Keys! We Strive To Please!

Sweetheart; Thurman McNeely, Vice-President, Ardell England, James McLaughlin, Secretary; Leonard Sutton, Mr. Wesley Moore, Sponsor.

The only club for boys only is the Key Club, with its only girl member who is their sweetheart, Vivian Johnson.

These boys do a lot of good deeds during the school to aid others and they are members of more than a worthy organization.

Affiliated with the Kiwanis group of men who render services to the community, this group of boys do likewise by rendering a yearly service to the community and to the school.

Only a group of eleven, this group of young men are really on the road to bettering themselves, their city and their country.

They had a new sponsor this past year who has been at Central for two years, Mr. Wesley Moore, who, all the boys feel is a great sponsor.

The main service that these young fellows do every year is to get a Christmas Basket for some needy family.

All in all it has been a great year.

Key Club has keys to everything. Mr. Weslie Moore. Thurman McNeely, James McLaughlin, Wayne Smith, Rocky Jones, Charles Bowmen and Vivien Johnson.

The Latin Club is among one of the most interesting we have at Central. In the past the club has sung Christmas Carols in the halls, sold candy, and even put on a wonderful show of a chariot race during half time at one of the football games. Part of the club's success can be attributed to its very fine sponsor and officers. They are Miss Faye Mashburn, sponsor; Barbara Roe, President; Nancy Ebersole, Vice-President; Marie Deal, Secretary; Pat Wood, Treasurer; Wantha Krows, parliamentarian, and Emma Miller, historian. The club continues to study Roman history and Mythology.

Delegates were sent to their State Convention which was held in Norman, Oklahoma and their State Committee Meetings which were held at John Marshall High School.

One good way to get out of class is to sing Christmas Carols in the halls.

"You expect me to wear this?" exclaims Robert Massengale to Barbara Roe and Marie Deal.

These must be twentieth-century gladiators, Robert Ebersole, and Butch Barton.

One of the activities of the Y-Teens is "Recognition Service" at the Y.W.C.A. This event, held in the early fall, provides a time for all the Y-Teens of Oklahoma City to come together and recognize the beginning of a new and prosperous year. This is always held in recognition of the founders.

Once a month the Y-Teens hold an all city meeting, called the Inter-City Council where each school is represented.

The highlight of the year was the Christmas dance. This dance is held at the Y.W.C.A. in the Mirror room.

The officers of this organization are President, Fran Henderson; Vice-President, May Watson; Secretary, Emma Miller, and Treasurer, Shirley Johnson.

Officers for the year were Principal

Chieftain, Marilu Toathy; Vice-Chieftain, Leon Harjo; Scribe, Florence Fixico; and Treasurer, Ramona Miller.

The Indian Club also took advantage of the swimming pool and other facilities of the Y.

At the end of the year a Brave and Princess was selected to reign.

The Senior Girls' "O" Club is largely to promote good sportsmanship among high school girls participating in sports such as softball, basketball, volleyball, and table tennis. The "O" Club is made up of the girls who have lettered in one or more of these sports.

These girls have enough time to become good enough to compete against other schools in these different sports.

The officers of this club are President, Anita Zachery; Vice-President, Roberta Smith; Secretary-Treasurer, Fran Henderson and the sponsor is Miss Janice Martin.

This is one of the finest clubs Central is privileged to have for girls.

Smiles For Money: Karen Weant, Anita Zachry, Linda Dean, Stella Edmondson, Mr. Dale Story, Athletic Director; Fran Henderson, and Roberta Smith.

The Senior High Boys 'O' Club is composed of boys who excel in the sports of baseball, basketball and football. Many of their members play in all three sports.

The club has high standards. The young men have to abide by these, if they plan to stay in the club.

One of the hardest things they had to do this year was to elect their sports queen. They wanted a girl that attended a great majority of the games and was a good Centralite. Many girls fitted the qualifications and there were about twelve nominees. Their winner was Gloria Hobbs.

Medics Say "You Break It-We'll Fix It"

New, new, new is just what the Medical Careers Club is. The Future Nurses as it was called in the past decided to change its rules this year so both boys and girls could belong to the club and then a new name was also selected.

Being one of the smaller clubs makes them also be a close and more efficient group.

During the past year the club rendered many services for others which is one of their prime goals. They went to many old folks' homes to sing for them, wrote letters for them, and any other services that they personally wanted rendered.

When the smile contest was going on many of the students aided the dentists.

When this new club first began new members had to wear odd fashions and any thing to make them look a little "outstanding." This was a lot of fun for them.

Margaret Webb checks Gloria Hobbs slight case of fever.

ROW ONE: Phyllis Swan, Secretary; Marvin Martin, President; Johnnie Wilkins, Nora Moore, Mildred Williams, Jeanetta Fields, Norma Harry, Phyllis Colvin, Sharri Hopper.

The biggest and the best is the way the thirty-two Thespians feel about their club.

The first semester president, Marvin Martin, did a lot for the club's advancement.

Club sponsor, Miss Maybelle Conger, did something this past year for her group that she had never done before; she gave them a Christmas party that was one blast.

The Christmas Party is one of the first major events of the year but the second event is as grand. It is the state convention, which was held at Norman, Oklahoma. Usually the event is held here at Central High School. This event at Norman was at the State University.

At this convention pupils learned many things about the arts of theater.

But the biggest and best thing this year is that several members plan to attend the National Convention, in Indiana. This will be the first time for the students if such a plan is carried out.

"This dumb in-law trouble is for the birds," screams Gary, to his play like family.

ROW ONE: Miss Maybelle Conger, Willie Nolan, Sherry Neice, Judy Tallant, Elizabeth McGough, Edna White, Linda Proctor, Danny McClary, Derenda Bowen, Leonard Bailey, Kathy Price, Richard Butler.

The Red Wings is a Speech Club for eighth grade students who have taken speech and have enjoyed it.

The sponsor is Miss Maybelle Conger. She originated the club in October of 1958. Since then it has been a very active Junior High club.

The Red Wings do not only learn how to better their speech, but they give pep skits for pep assemblies, and learn Parliamentary procedure.

They hold a meeting every Friday and elect new officers every semester. The officers are President, Rudy Esparza; Vice-President, Doris Anderson; Secretary, Linda Johnson; Treasurer, Sam Morgan, and Reporter, Jerry Ford.

The Red Wings also have honorary members. This year the Red Wings' honorary members are Mr. Lloyd Robbins, Mr. Dale Story, and Mr. Bill Salwachter.

"Don't frown, smile," says Miss Maybelle Conger to the officers.

So this is the way the class looks when Miss Conger is away.

The journalism and annual staff classes were combined this year. Both classes participate in working these assignments.

Mrs. Retta Taylor has been teaching these classes here at Central for four years. She has done a wonderful job. The students also deserve much credit for their double job.

Marvin Martin, editor of this year's annual spent many hours of hard and frustrating work. But he says that it was time well spent.

Editor of the Sooner Spirit was Shirley Arther. Her job was a strenuous one also, but having each issue of the paper turn out a success made all who worked on it happy.

Both of these classes have done a wonderful job this year. With the co-operation given by all it turned out to be a splendid year for the journalism and annual staff.

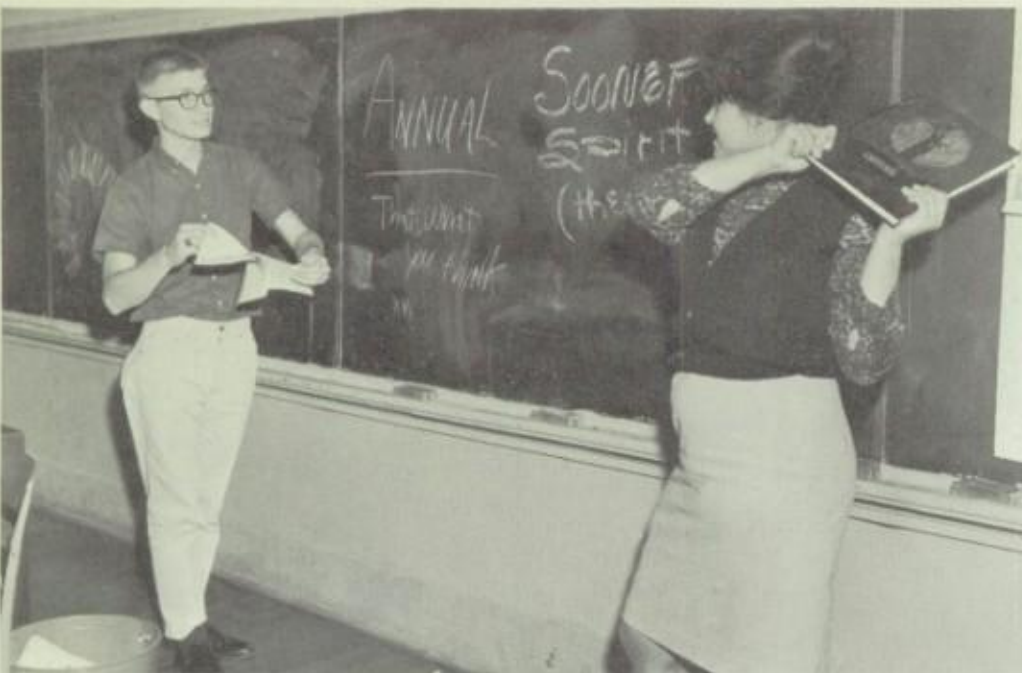

That's Shirley Arther, Miss Sooner Spirit, forever at work.

Clinton Evans, you and Jay Bendle sure must have sold a lot of papers by the smiles on your faces.

MORNING COSMETOLOGY

The Cosmetology department formed in 1952 is one of the most popular two year courses at Central.

Cosmetology is a three hour class and is taught by Mrs. Gloria Rehrig.

There are two classes, the morning and afternoon class. Each class is taught the various procedures such as hair styling, permanent waving, tinting, bleaching, mani-cures, pedicures, lash and eye brow tinting, and facials.

When they have completed their 120 class hours on other members of the class they are allowed to work on outside patrons.

If they plan to be licensed beauticians they have to complete their required 1000 hours and take the Oklahoma State Board examinations.

One of Central's most essential classes is the trade printing class. It teaches Central students a trade that will help them in their future years.

The boys in the printing class print our school paper, the "Sooner Spirit," and Harding High School's paper as well as business materials for the Board of Education.

The class is taught by two of the finest teachers anywhere. They are D. W. Woolman who teaches composition, and Mr. Cecil Tansel who teaches the press room class.

The trade printing class isn't the only printing class at Central. We also have the beginning printing class for the beginning printing students to learn the basic operations so they can later enter trade printing class. The beginning printing class is taught by Mr. Homer Moody.

The trade printing class formed a printers' club, the Inkslingers, to help promote school spirit.

Central's pre-apprentice vocational training was organized in 1932.

This year again Mr. Orville Looney is head of one of the most interesting of boys' classes. It is auto mechanics and is offered each day as a three hour class. A total of thirty-nine boys are enrolled.

Central is one of three high schools in Oklahoma City, that offers a complete course in auto mechanics. In addition to learning the repairing of automobiles students are taught the theories of internal combustion, and automobile transmissions.

The boys in these classes not only depend on the course for classroom credit, but as a means of keeping their own personal source of transportation in top notch mechanical condition.

But the best advantage of this class is that it will enable them to secure jobs after graduation.

It might be dirty work but good clean learning.

Brighter students look toward a brighter future.

The branch of the National Honor Society at Central is the oldest branch in Oklahoma. It started in 1922 and has continued through 1964 and will most likely continue through years to come.

The membership qualifications are based on character, scholarship, leadership, and service to students. The members are usually prospective college students.

This year the sponsors were Mrs. Eleanor Askew, Mrs. Marion Jarrell, Miss Faye Mashburn, and Mr. Jimmy Hale. The sponsors along with Mr. Joe Lawter, select the college and the course best suited for them.

To be a member of the Society is a great honor and we at Central are proud of our members.

Honor Society receives pins.

One of the better privileges for senior students is being elected to represent the school as an oil-man for a day.

The nine students were selected from science and math classes. They also had to be the best in these two fields, which is quite a credit to them.

They did many things during their trip to Norman, Oklahoma. They went to lectures about oil, and various things associated with it. They also went to visit some oil plants.

Write, Write, Write-We're Never Trite

The Creative Writing Club consists of boys and girls interested in bettering their ability to write stories, short paragraphs, and poems.

Their sponsor, Mrs. Lilibell Lucy, has taught her young students quite a bit. Those of them who write good enough articles can have them put into the Sooner Spirit and a little booklet of verse that goes around to all the public junior and senior high schools in the Oklahoma City area.

Thirty students, who are very active, participate in and belong to this club.

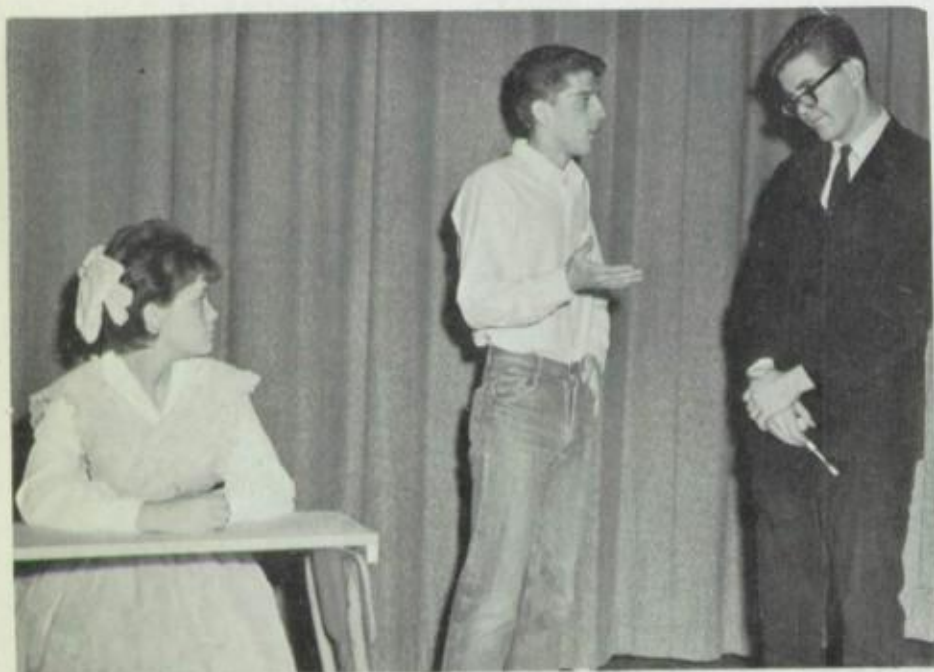

The things these students write must be original or they are not accepted. In order to get the work approved they must have it read and graded.

Our Town

By Thorton Wilder

A great group of high-school students who put on one of the best plays Central has ever had in years was the comments made by most after seeing the advance speech production. During the nine weeks it took in preparing for the play many mishaps made it seem impossible. Not only did the students learn from the play itself, but they also profited from the mishaps that took place.

Miss Conger said that these group of students were not the "most talented" bunch of kids that she has ever coached, but they were by far the most helpful in every aspect.

Emily thinks, "If they only knew."

Isn't it something our windows are so close together says Emily to George.

MANPOWER

The most recent addition to the Central High school Program is the Manpower Development Training Program which was designed to offer a high school education plus qualification training in a skill trade to those students who had left school before graduating and who later desired to return to school.

The program has had a great deal of federal support and was one of the areas of concern to our late President Kennedy. It is an experimental program, and is the first of its kind. The program is staffed with four academic teachers and nine skill teachers, besides the office personnel.

The boys are offered a skill in welding, sheetmetal, machine work, or auto mechanics, while the girls may choose stenographic training or cosmetology.

Manpower has had several programs, including a Christmas assembly which was for the entire high school student body. One of the projects of the Manpower group is an attempt to inform the potential drop-out of the realities which lie hidden out beyond the green looking pastures of no more school. This has been approached in the form of a panel which has traveled to other schools and discussed the problems with these students.

In Appreciation

I'd like to tell you how much I enjoyed working on this book for you. There are so many people that need to be thanked for understanding when we had problems, the teachers who excused the staff members so many times, the student body, who had faith and purchased a yearbook at the beginning of the year, and "The Rembrant Studios" who made such wonderful pictures.

But most of all the people I worked closest with, our sponsor Mrs. Retta Taylor, for without her this book would not have been possible, and to the best friend an editor ever had, Shirley Arthur. To my layout editors Robert Hale and Shirley Rameriz, and to Carolyn Young who did a fine job with the index. To Donna Hopkins and Rocky Jones, for keeping the records straight, and to the best Junior editor I've ever seen Linda Buntin.. I only hope that Linda has a staff nearly as good as mine next year.

"Miss Conger" this book is dedicated to you because of the love for Central that you have and for the regards the staff members and I have for you.....Marvin Martin

Thank you!
